

ELIGIBILITY/SCREENING PROCEDURE: RENT-AN-ADDRESS

Eligibility

1.Applicant's proposed business (or organizational activity) has at its core the following as its main activity:

- a.technology and intellectual property development
- b.product development, optimization and commercialization/ deployment
- c.developing innovative solutions to societal/industrial problems
- d.research and scientific/ engineering services
- e.activities supporting the above

Note: The NCL Innovation Park aims to brand itself as a home for "innovative companies" and "science and technology-based business".

2.Applicant is a:

- a. start-up body corporate or
- b.individual planning to start a body corporate or
- c.new venture (independently registered or proposed to be registered) of an existing organization
- d.social enterprises and not-for-profit organizations in related areas

3.Applicant 's core know-how areas are related to:

- a.Chemical sciences/ engineering and allied disciplines
- b.Biological sciences/ engineering and allied disciplines
- c.Materials sciences/engineering and allied disciplines
- d.Development of novel scientific instrumentation and specialized equipment
- e.Research services, intellectual property services, venture capital services
- f.Other selected areas

4.From time to time, Venture Center's Admission Committee may need to introduce additional criteria to protect its business interests and brand equity. The decision of the Venture Center's Admissions Committee shall be final.