

Here is everything you need to know about applying for a position within the Venture Center.

How to apply

The first step in your application is very straightforward. Find a vacancy that suits your interests and qualifications. Once you've found a position in the vacancies area you can start filling in your online application right away. We also welcome applications for specialized functions relating to incubation/investment/innovation management all through the year if no suitable openings are listed.

Apply online for the vacancy

Click 'Apply Online' at the side of the job posting and you will be taken to an application form. Here you can fill in your contact details and information about your highest educational qualification and current profile, and so on. You can also attach your CV.

Direct question to relevant contact person

If you have questions about vacancy announcements you may have received, please refer to the website and to the contact person - Joshua Samudre - hr@venturecenter.co.in

Review and short-listing of interviewees

If from your application, you appear to fulfill the criteria we have outlined in the job advertisement, we will aim to get back to you within a few days of receipt of your application. It is, however, important for us to review all applications carefully, so please bear with us if it takes longer to respond.

Preliminary interaction	The interview
Your first interaction will most likely be conducted with the HR. The purpose of this interaction is to understand your background, interests, expectations & strengths and explore a "fit" with our needs.	The second interview is normally conducted by the Director, General Manager and Function Head and may involve external experts. This interview focuses more on the specific skills and qualities required for the position.

ALERT

Venture Center does not charge any application- processing- or training fee at any stage of the recruitment process, ever. If you have questions about vacancy announcements you may have received, please refer to this website, and to the contact person listed in the vacancy in question.
