Monsoons and winters are great to be spending a quiet evening at a waterway. About 50 km south of the city of Aurangabad is the Jayakwadi dam, a gigantic construction that's about 10 km long. One of the largest multipurpose dams of Maharashtra, the Jayakwadi waters the fields of the Marathwada regions.

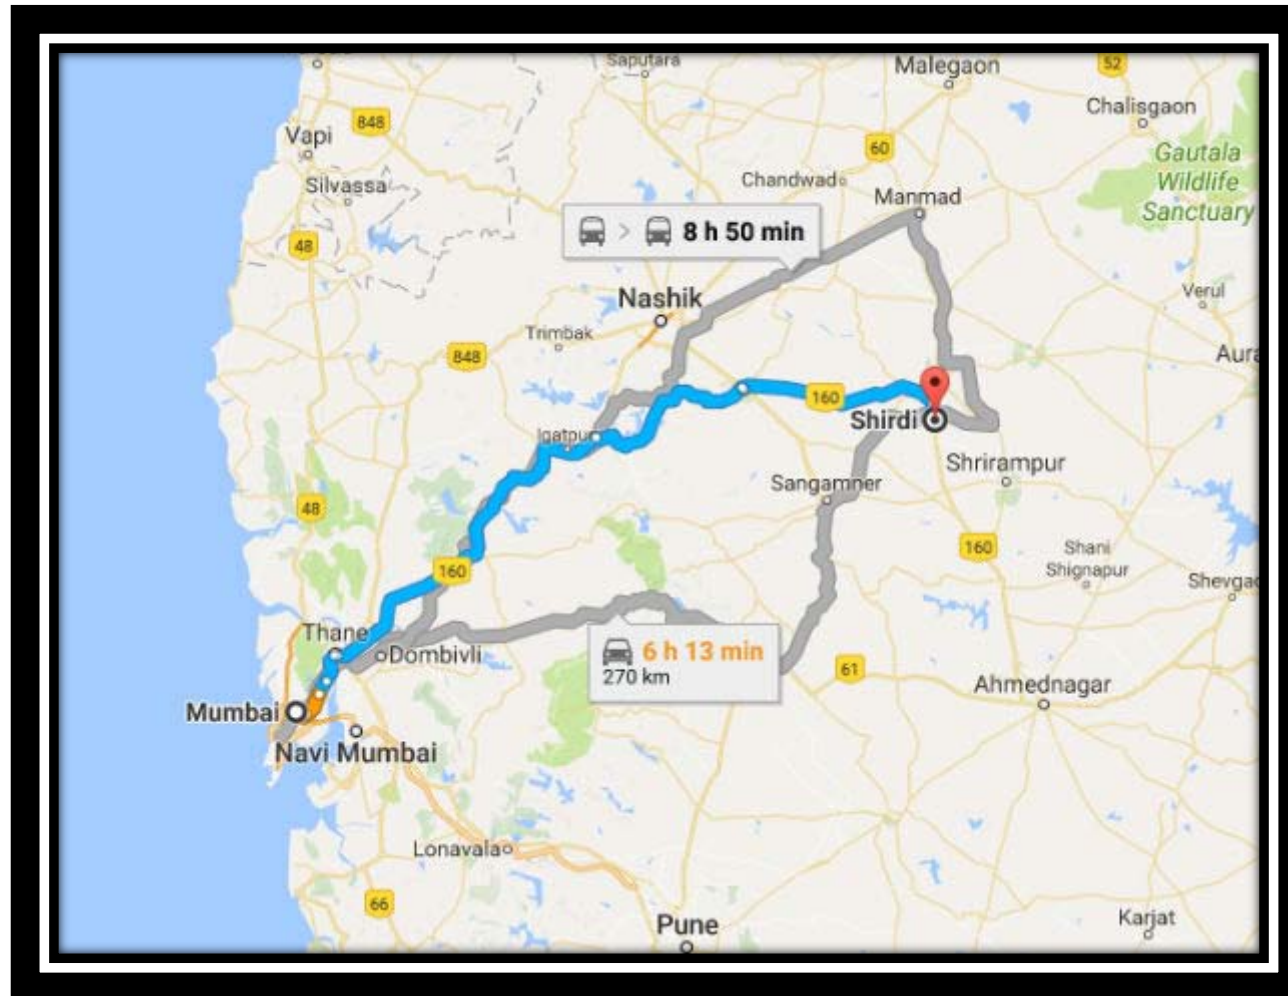

Near the dam is a reservoir called the Nath Sagar Lake, along with a garden called Dyaneshwar Udyan close by and a bird sanctuary as well. From the Nath Sagar Lake, the dam is an impressive and amazing feat of engineering.

1 Day Trip To Shirdi

<https://shirdisaitemple.com/shirdi-article/id/86/dwarkamai-shirdi>

Shirdi will provide complete peace and spirituality in the best possible way. Shirdi is a divine place and extremely popular for Shirdi Sai Baba as it is here he lived for decades before attaining the Samadhi. Shirdi is the abode of Sai Baba, one of the greatest and the most revered saints of India.

Sri Sai Baba Samadhi Mandir		You can start your day by 4 am in the morning and head to Samadhi Mandir for the most important and acclaimed "Kakad Aarti". You can easily buy an Aarti Pass that will just cost you INR 500 and be present in the lane that is near to the Sai Baba's samadhi. The Aarti will end around 6 AM and you will be out of the Mandir complex around 6:30 AM. G Map Pin:- https://goo.gl/maps/5pnpf6EvHsdrTyjF7

Babas Chavadi

Chavadi is traditionally a place where villager's meet, office, or court where taxes were collected, village records kept, disputes settled by the village heads, and visiting officials stayed. It so happened that once in Shirdi, during the monsoons, the Dwarkamai mosque where Baba used to stay, was unfit for providing shelter to him due to its leaky walls. As a result, out of sheer love and concern for Baba, his devotees affectionately forced him to evacuate the mosque and instead moved him to the Chavadi.

Dwarkamai

Shri Sai Baba came to Shirdi with a marriage procession. Lord Sai baba stayed at Dwarkamai till the very end of his life. Dwarkamai is situated on the right of the entrance of Samadhi Mandir. Here Sai Baba solved problems of the people, cured their sickness and worries. Before Baba's arrival in Shirdi, Dwarkamai was an old mosque in a dilapidated condition.

Lord Khandoba was tutelary deity of Mhlasapti, who was priest of Khandoba temple by heredity and he was then responsible for starting worship of Sai Baba. Khandoba temple which had its origin about 500 years ago was but natural rural and simple. It did not even have a door. There is large banyan tree where Sai Baba alighted with marriage party of Chand Patil at the entrance of Khandoba temple.

Enjoy A Peaceful And Religious Visit

1 Weekend At The Konkan Beaches

The Konkan Coast in Maharashtra offers a bounty of beautiful beaches, which are among the most pristine in the country. Delightfully off the tourist trail, they are devoid of much commercial development and many are practically deserted. In this regard, the best time to visit is during January and February, when the weather is warm (not hot), and it's the low season for domestic tourism. During peak season water sports, camel rides, and horse cart rides proliferate on the popular beaches.

Alibaug		Alibaug is a sought after weekend destination for people living in Mumbai, and many of the city's rich and famous own bungalows there. The town has got quite a bit of history behind it. Established in the 17th century, there are numerous old forts, churches, synagogues, and temples all waiting to be explored. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Alibag G Map Pin:- https://goo.gl/maps/cAjfSgWH1tN1L35K8
Kashid		A little further down the coast from Alibaug, Kashid is more isolated but growing in popularity. Its long, wide beach is lined with casuarina trees, snack stalls, and hammocks. Two of the major attractions in the area are Phansad Wildlife Sanctuary and Janjira Fort. While the beach is quite empty on weekdays, it receives an influx of visitors on weekends. Family owned cottages and guesthouses provide most of the accommodations as there are only a few hotels in the area. https://www.holidify.com/places/kashid/kashid-beach-sightseeing-2303.html G Map Pin:- https://goo.gl/maps/Ff5HnEro9W6btxfY8

Diveagar		Diveagar is a relatively unknown beach that's not too far from Mumbai. It's bordered by dense forestation. Make your way through it and you'll be greeted by a wide, clean beach with fine sand. The town used to have a Ganesh temple with a golden idol but thieves stole the idol in 2012. It's since been replaced by a silver one. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Diveagar G Map Pin:- https://goo.gl/maps/MVraVAt5kUuPaYzaA
Harihareshwar		Many people head to Harihareshwar, neighboring Srivardhan, to visit its Shiva temple that houses an ancient Shiva linga. There's a pradakshina route around the temple, along the seashore. A rocky outcrop, accessible only during low tide, makes the beach particularly distinctive. The beach is actually split into two parts, north and south of the temple. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Harihareshwar G Map Pin:- https://goo.gl/maps/c4NFp7EJDt7mZYCK7
Murud and Karde		Murud and Karde form what is apparently the longest stretch of beach on the Konkan Coast. Hotels and homestays have mushroomed in the area, and there are many options for a beachfront stay. The main attraction is dolphin watching, especially during the winter when sightings are frequent. A little further north, Harnai is renowned for its massive daily fish market. You can buy some seafood and get the locals to cook it up for you! Suvarnadurg Fort can also be visited.https://www.tripadvisor.in/Attraction_Review-g1156425-d8861934-Reviews-Karde_Beach-Dapoli_Ratnagiri_District_Maharashtra.html G Map Pin:- https://goo.gl/maps/RDgEYqQoshgx1Uqr6/ https://goo.gl/maps/tnBaWZmhf53NpZXe8

Ganpatipule, Malgund, and Aare Ware		Ganpatipule is famous for its Ganesh temple, located right on the beach. Due to the number of devotees it attracts, the beach is not pleasant for swimming or relaxing. If you're looking for a more serene stay, Malgund beach (a few kilometers before Ganpatipule) is a better option. Alternatively, there are a few pricey resorts located away from the temple as well. Untouched Aare Ware beach, south of Ganpatipule, is a must-visit beach. The sea views from the cliffs and road above it on either side are sensational. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ganpatipule G Map Pin:- https://goo.gl/maps/DGAZCpbRVhufUdEx9
Tarkarli, Malvan, and Devbagh		If you're prepared to travel the distance, you'll be amply rewarded when you visit these beaches. The area is reminiscent of Goa decades ago before development set in. Its narrow, palm-fringed roads are lined with village homes, and locals can often be seen unhurriedly riding bicycles or walking to get around. The many beachfront homestays and guesthouses make it an appealing and inexpensive area to stay. The serenity of the beaches is preserved by the fact that water sports take place on a nearby island. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tarkarli G Map Pin:- https://goo.gl/maps/sfYF8Q1CJvJdu9bE7 https://goo.gl/maps/wjQRsQzj5VnMEjU5A https://goo.gl/maps/fYF8gdMinouE13Yr6

Not only because of its location but metaphorically speaking too – Kasba Peth houses Kasba Ganapati, Pune's Gram Davait or the presiding deity Ganesha who looks after the well being of the people of Pune. When a conflict arose between the different Ganesh Mandals as to which one shall lead the Ganesh Visarjan (Immersion) process, Lokmanya Tilak solved it by according the premier status among all Ganeshas to Kasba Ganapati in the ten day long Ganeshotsav or Ganesh Chaturthi festival. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Location: Kasba Peth Rd, Phadke Haud, Kasba Peth, Pune</li><li>• Timings: 6 AM – 9 PM</li><li>• https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kasba_Ganapati</li></ul> G Map Pin:- https://goo.gl/maps/x7VgWqduNDNRN61VA
