Sunil Bakshi

He had been working with State Bank of India for 25 years as IT Manager. He also worked as Manager in Enterprise Risk Services group of Deloitte Touché Tohmatsu India Private Limited, Mumbai and as Senior Manager in Wipro consulting services. Sunil was CISO of National Stock Exchange. Currently he is free-lance consultant and trainer in IT governance and Information Security.

Sunil is Senior Member of Computer Society of India and is a Patron of Pune chapter. He was Chairman of Pune chapter. He is also member of ISACA and was president of Pune chapter. He was member of International Membership board of ISACA, USA and CISM and CRISC Test Enhancement committee of ISACA. Currently he is working on CRISC Certification committee of ISACA International and part of QA team of CISA and CISM technical review manuals. Sunil is also member of Association of Technical Scholarships (AOTS), Japan. Sunil has written number of articles on Information Systems Security and Audit topics in various national and International publications like Information Systems Control Journal of ISACA, USA, CSI Communications of Computer Society of India, etc. Sunil has presented various topics at many national and international conferences organized by ISACA, CSI, and ICAI.

Sunil has multiple professional qualifications and some of them are enumerated below for reference.
MCA, CISA, CISM, CGEIT, CRISC, CISSP, PMP, CEH, AMIIB, ABCI, ISO 27001 LA, BS25999 LI

His areas of expertise are specified below:

- Data / IT Systems Security
- Software Products & Application Development for a variety of Industry verticals
- Project management / Program Management
- Quality Management / TQM
- Operations Management
- Product Development (Concept to Delivery)