

Social Innovation Lecture Series
presents 21st talk on

Mapro: A journey of humble beginnings, innovation and goodness

Friday, 15 Nov 2019 | Time: 4.00 - 5.00 pm

(Registration and networking tea @ 3.30 pm)

Venue: Training room, Venture Center, 100 NCL Innovation Park

Mayur Vora

Managing Director, Mapro Foods Pvt. Ltd.

Abstract of the talk

The speaker will be sharing the success story of Mapro foods emphasizing the innovations and their model for delivering social impact in the region. He will share his learnings and experiences as part of this journey, the highs and lows and most importantly what worked and did not work with varied stakeholders in this entire journey.

Brief Bio of Speaker

Mr. Mayur Vora is a graduate in Economics and Mathematics from Fergusson College, Pune in 1978 and has completed MBA from IIM Bangalore in 1980. After a brief stint in Voltas, he joined the family business from 1983 onwards till date, where he has functioned as Managing Director of Mapro Foods Pvt Ltd from 1990 till date. He is also a partner in another sister venture of the family business, Mapro Garden LLP. He is also part of the trustee boards of academic institutes, charitable trusts etc., via which he actively pursues his interests in Rural Education and Youth Activities. He actively mentors social entrepreneurs sharing his learnings and experiences to impact their entrepreneurial journeys.

Register here: <http://tinyurl.com/hs5y56t>